FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 2010

5:00 p.m - 7:00 p.m. — Registration

7:00 p.m.- 9:00 p.m. — DeAnn Lechtenberger, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR, TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY, LUBBOCK, TEXAS

Achieving the Promise: The Significant Role for Schools in Transforming Children's Mental Health in America

There is an urgent need for educators to become more informed about children's mental health as well as the treatment resources available in their local communities to support students with EBD and their families. As school personnel we can create positive, stable learning environments that promote better mental health for all students, especially those identified as EBD, by becoming collaborative partners with other educators, families, and our communities. We need to be proactive with all students and less reactive to student misbehavior. Teachers should not have to wait until students have a crisis to receive the supports they need to grow up and become happy and healthy adults.

9:00 P.M.-10:00 P.M. — MEET, GREET, REFLECT ON KEY ISSUES

This is your opportunity to have round table discussions on the following topics:

Time Out and Physical Restraint • RTI and PBIS Update • Case Load for Special Education Teachers

The School's Responsibility in Mental Health • What You Would Really Like Your Administrator to Know about Your BD Class.

(During the hour, you will have a chance to participate in discussions on three of the topics).
